On March 25, 2018, at approximately 3:58am, members of the Nashua Police Department's Uniform Field Operations Bureau arrested David Hinds, age 33, of 840 Lakeview Ave, Lowell, MA, for one count of Second Degree Assault, Class B Felony.

On March 25, 2018 at approximately 3:23am, members of the Uniform Field Operations Bureau responded to a downtown residence for a report of stabbing. Upon arrival, it was learned the victim had suffered several stab wounds in the back, and was subsequently transported to an area hospital to be treated for non-life threatening injuries. During the investigation, it was learned a physical altercation occurred inside the apartment bedroom following a verbal argument. During the physical altercation, the victim was then stabbed in the back several times.

Detectives then furthered the investigation and found that Hinds was responsible for stabbing the victim in the back several times during the altercation. Hinds was arrested on scene and subsequently charged with one count of Second Degree Assault, Class B Felony

A Class B Felony is punishable by up to 7 years imprisonment, exclusive of fines. Hind's bail was set at $7,500 cash or surety and is scheduled to appear at arraignment at the Hillsborough Superior Court-South on March 26, 2018.
