On February 7, 2018 at 1:16 am, members of the Nashua Police Department Uniform Field Operations Bureau arrested Alexander Crockett, 18, of No Fixed Address, Nashua, NH on a warrant charging him with Robbery, Class A Felony, and Second Degree Assault, Class B Felony.

On January 4, 2018 officers responded to the area of Stevens Ave, Nashua, New Hampshire for a report of a robbery. Upon arrival they made contact with the victim who advised responding officers that he was robbed at gun point. The victim also advised responding officers that during the course of the robbery, he was cut in the facial area with a knife, as well as struck over the head multiple times with a hard object. Through the course of the investigation detectives were able to positively identify the assailant as Alexander Crockett who was known to the victim.

A Class A Felony is punishable by up to 15 years in State Prison, exclusive of fines. Crockett refused bail and is being held at Valley Street Jail pending his arraignment at the Hillsborough Superior Court-South on February 7, 2018. The Nashua Police Department requests anyone with more information about this incident to contact the Crime Line at (603)-589-1665.
