On February 9, 2021, at approximately 10:10 am, members of the Nashua Police Department's Uniform Field Operations Bureau arrested Andrew Sam, age 23, of Lowell, Massachusetts, for one count of each of the following Class B Felonies: Second Degree Assault – Domestic Violence and Criminal Mischief, and two counts of each of the following Class A Misdemeanors: Stalking, Criminal Mischief and Simple Assault-Domestic Violence.

On February 8, 2021 members Nashua Police Department's Uniform Field Operations made contact with an adult female victim who reported a physical altercation involving Sam, who is known to the victim. The victim also reported property belonging to her was destroyed by Sam. It was also learned Sam had bail conditions stemming from a prior arrest which prohibit contact with the female. Detectives from the Special Investigations Division furthered the investigation and obtained a warrant for Sam's arrest.

Each Class B Felony is punishable up to 7 ½ years in State Prison, exclusive of fines. Each Class A Misdemeanor is punishable by up to one year in jail, exclusive of fines. Sam refused bail and is being held pending his arraignment at the Hillsborough County Superior Court-South on February 10, 2021.
