On March 27, 2018 at approximately 6:37PM, officers from the Nashua Police Department's Uniform Field Operation Bureau arrested Joshua Farnum, date of birth December 31, 1992 for Registration of Online Identifiers, Class B Felony.

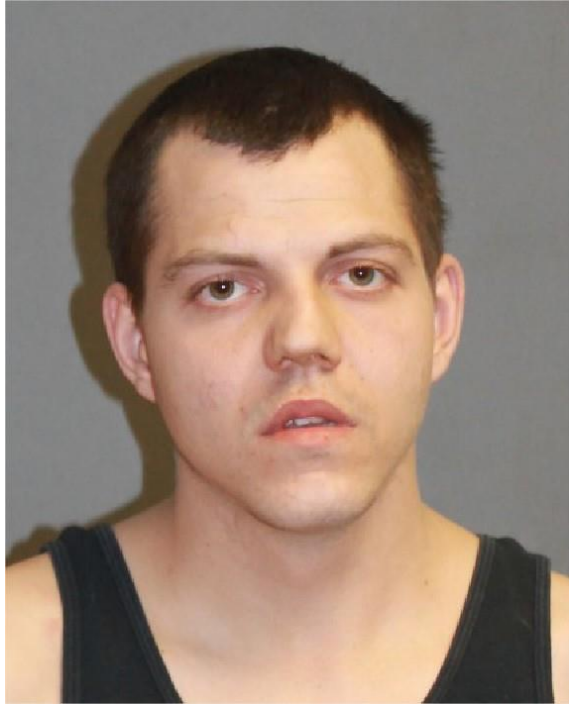

The Nashua Police Department learned Farnum, a convicted Sex Offender, had obtained an e-mail address without properly updating his Sex Offender Registration information within five business days. An investigation was initiated by the Problem Oriented Policing Unit with the assistance of the Special Investigations Division. Following the investigation, it was determined that Farnum had failed to report this change to his information as required and a warrant was obtained for his arrest. Farnum was charged with one count of Registration of Online Identifiers, a Class B Felony.

Farnum was convicted of Sexual Assault out of Jaffrey District Court in Jaffrey, New Hampshire on September 14, 2016. This conviction is a qualifying offense for the State of New Hampshire Sex Offender Registry. Based on that conviction, Farnum is required to register semi-annually as a Sex Offender for a 10 year period from his conviction date of September 14, 2016.

A Class B Felony is punishable by up to seven years imprisonment, exclusive of fines. Farnum refused bail and was released to Hillsborough County House of Corrections. His arraignment is scheduled for March 28, 2018.

Information on non-compliant sex offenders who reside in Nashua, NH can be reported to the Nashua Police Department at (603) 594-3500.
