On July 8, 2017 at approximately 11:30 PM the Nashua Police Department arrested Jean Cintron, age 36, of 56 Tyler Street apt. 511, Nashua, New Hampshire on a warrant for Second Degree Assault, Class B Felony.

On June 29, 2017 at approximately 9:31 PM, patrol officers from the Nashua Police Department's Uniform Field Operations Bureau responded to a report of a domestic assault that just occurred at a downtown Nashua residence. The female victim reported she was assaulted by her boyfriend, Jean Cintron, and that he fled the residence. The victim reported Cintron struck her several times with a lamp, pushed her, and strangled her. Because of the severity of the report, detectives from the Special Investigations Division were notified. Based on their investigation, detectives applied for and were granted an arrest warrant for Cintron.

Cintron was located downtown on July 8, 2017 and placed under arrest. The following additional charges were added at the time of Cintron's arrest: Second Degree Assault – Domestic Violence, Class B Felony; three counts of Simple Assault, Class A Misdemeanor; and three counts of Domestic Violence, Class A Misdemeanor.

A Class B Felony is punishable by up to seven years in State Prison, exclusive of fines. A Class A Misdemeanor is punishable by up to one year in the House of Correction, exclusive of fines. Cintron is being held on $20,000 cash only bail pending his arraignment at the 9th Circuit-District Division-Nashua Court on July 10, 2017.
