On December 28, 2016 at 5:41 PM, members of the Nashua Police Department's Uniform Field Operations Bureau arrested Reed Burgess, age 24, of 127 Vine Street #C, Nashua, New Hampshire, for Criminal Mischief, Class B Felony.

On November 4, 2016 members of the Nashua Police Department's Uniform Field Operation's Bureau responded to 127 Vine Street, for the report of Criminal Threatening. The Nashua Police Department's Field Operations Bureau furthered the investigation, and Burgess was determined to be the suspect. It was determined that Burgess had thrown a car jack at the victim's vehicle as he passed by him. The damage that was caused was in excess of $1,500.00. An arrest warrant was obtained for Burgess.

A Class B Felony is punishable by up to seven years imprisonment, exclusive of fines. Burgess was released on $10,000.00 Personal Recognizance bail with his arraignment at the 9th Circuit Court-Nashua District Division on February 8, 2017.
