On January 26, 2018 at approximately 6:33PM, Emerson Pena-Hernandez, age 25, of 3 Lear Drive, Nashua, NH was arrested by Officers of the Uniform Field Operations Bureau of the Nashua Police Department. Pena-Hernandez is charged with one count of Burglary, Class A Felony and one count of Burglary, Class B Felony.

On December 13, 2017, the Nashua Police Department Uniform Patrol Operations Bureau took reports of two separate burglaries that took place at a residence and a Nashua business. During these burglaries, money and a personal laptop were taken. The Criminal Investigation Division furthered these investigations and Detectives were able to identify Pena-Hernandez as the suspect in both burglaries. An arrest warrant was then issued for Pena-Hernandez who turned himself in on that arrest warrant.

A Class A Felony is punishable by up to fifteen years imprisonment and a Class B Felony is punishable up to seven years imprisonment, both exclusive of fines. Pena-Hernandez received a $500.00 Cash bail which he posted and will be arraigned at the Hillsborough County Superior Court - South on February 8, 2018.
