On January 28, 2017 at approximately 4:44 a.m., members of the Nashua Police Department's Uniform Field Operations Bureau arrested Timothy Wahl, age 23, of 41 Newbury Street, Apartment #4, Nashua, New Hampshire. Wahl is charged with Criminal Threatening-Domestic Violence, Class B Felony; Criminal Threatening, Class B Felony; Simple Assault-Domestic Violence, Class A Misdemeanor; and Simple Assault, Class A Misdemeanor.

On January 28, 2017, at approximately 3:21 a.m., members of the Nashua Police Department's Uniform Field Operations Bureau responded to Squire Drive in Nashua for the report of a domestic disturbance, in which a handgun was displayed.

Upon arrival, patrol officers located a female victim, known to Wahl, who reported she had been assaulted and threatened by Wahl, who brandished a handgun. The female victim identified a second victim, a male, who had also been threatened by Wahl in the same manner, and assaulted. The male victim was located, and it was learned that Wahl assaulted the man with a bat. The male victim sustained injuries as a result of the assault. He was later treated for his injuries at a local hospital and released. Wahl was not on scene initially, but was located by patrol officers shortly thereafter, and subsequently taken into custody at that location.

The Special Investigation Division of the Nashua Police Department's Detective Bureau is currently furthering the investigation. Additional information about the incident and the status of the investigation will be released by the Special Investigation Division as it becomes available.
