On March 14, 2018 at approximately 5:21 PM, officers from the Nashua Police Department's Uniform Field Operations Bureau, Patrol Division, arrested Timothy O'Mara, age 52, of 28 Railroad Square, Apartment 28, Nashua, New Hampshire on a warrant for Duty to Report, Class A Felony.

The Nashua Police Department was notified that a convicted Sex Offender had returned to an address in Nashua without properly updating his Sex Offender Registration information. An investigation was initiated by the Special Investigations Division. Following the Detective's investigation, it was determined that O'Mara failed to report changes to his information as he returned to the City of Nashua and a warrant was obtained for his arrest. O'Mara was charged with one count of Duty to Report, a Class A Felony.

O'Mara was convicted of Rape of a Child in Essex County Superior Court in Salem, Massachusetts on June 8, 1994. Based on that conviction, O'Mara is required to register semi-annually as a Tier II Sex Offender for the remainder of his life. O'Mara has also been convicted of Duty to Report on June 4, 2008 from Hillsborough County Superior Court South in Nashua, New Hampshire. Thus, any subsequent offense of Duty to Report or Duty to Inform is a Class A Felony.

A Class A Felony is punishable by up to fifteen years imprisonment, exclusive of fines. Timothy O'Mara refused bail and is being held at the Valley Street Jail pending arraignment on March 15, 2018 at Hillsborough Superior Court South in Nashua, New Hampshire.
