On October 6, 2017 at approximately 2:30PM, Robert Hartt, age 62, of 19 Groton Road, Nashua, NH was arrested by members of the Criminal Investigation Division. Hartt was arrested on a warrant and was charged with two counts of Criminal Threatening, Class B Felony.

On September 28, 2017, the Nashua Police Department Patrol Officers responded to 19 Groton Road, Nashua, NH for a report of a subject threatening two subjects with a firearm. Patrol Officers learned that a dispute had occurred at this location in regards to accidental damage caused by a delivery truck. During the course of the dispute, Hartt threatened to shoot two delivery workers and later obtained a firearm which was pointed toward these delivery workers. The Criminal Investigation Division furthered this investigation and an arrest warrant was completed for Hartt.

A Class B Felony is punishable by up to seven years imprisonment, exclusive of fines. Robert Hartt posted $5,000.00 Cash or Surety bail and will be arraigned in Hillsborough County Superior Court - South on November 27, 2017.
