On May 24, 2018 at approximately 5:49 pm, patrol officers responded to a Nashua residence for a report of a domestic disturbance. During this incident, the victim sustained a minor injury that did not require medical attention. Detectives from the Special Investigations Division furthered the investigation and developed Whitney Manley, age 19, of Nashua as a suspect. Manley and the victim are known to each other and both had since left the residence.

At approximately 10:32 pm, patrol officers located Manley and she was placed into custody. At the time of arrest Manley was found to be in possession of a controlled drug, Alprazolam. As a result of the investigation and her ensuing arrest, Manley was charged with Reckless Conduct – Domestic Violence, Class B Felony, Possession of a Controlled Drug, Class B Felony and two counts of Resisting Detention/Arrest, Class A Misdemeanor.

A Class B Felony is punishable by up to seven years in State Prison, exclusive of fines. A Class A Misdemeanor is punishable by up to one year in the County House of Corrections, exclusive of fines. Manley was held on $10,000.00 cash or surety bail and will be arraigned at the Hillsborough County Superior Court South on May 25, 2018.
