On March 23, 2017 at approximately 11:58pm the Nashua Police Department arrested Carlos Albarran, age 33, of 23 Elm Street Apt. 8, Nashua, New Hampshire and charged him with First Degree Assault, Class A Felony; Domestic Violence, Class B Felony and Criminal Trespass, Class A Misdemeanor.

On March 23, 2017 at approximately 8:32 p.m., patrol officers from the Nashua Police Department's Uniform Field Operations Bureau responded to a local hospital for a female who sustained serious injuries from an assault. Detectives from the Special Investigations Division were notified and furthered the matter. The female reported she got into an argument with her ex-boyfriend, Carlos Albarran, outside of his Elm Street residence. During the argument, Albarran armed himself with a sharp object and assaulted the female causing serious injuries to her neck and hand. The woman fled the area and sought treatment at a local hospital for her injuries. Albarran also fled the area, but was later located. It was also determined that earlier in the evening Albarran was at a location that he had been previously criminally trespassed from and that he was prohibited to return to. Following an investigation, Albarran was placed under arrest and charged with First Degree Assault, Class A Felony; First Degree Assault-Domestic Violence, Class B Felony; and Criminal Trespass, Class A Misdemeanor.

A Class A Felony is punishable by up to fifteen years in State Prison, exclusive of fines. A Class B Felony is punishable by up to seven years in State Prison, exclusive of fines. A Class A Misdemeanor is punishable by up to one year in the County House of Corrections, exclusive of fines.
